

I totally oppose any effort to restrict the content of XM radio or of any satellite radio service. This is a service to which users subscribe for a fee. I subscribe to XM radio because of deficiencies in the programming available through other media outlets.